

Mark A. Alatorre

Mr. Alatorre grew up in Selma California and graduated from Fresno State with a secondary credential in Kinesiology with a minor in Chicano Latino Studies. Mr "Al" (as called by his students) taught ten years at various local dance studios as well as the "Danzantes Unidos Festival". Mr. Alatorre also attended the last six of the ten "ANGF" dance conferences held in various cities across Mexico. Mr. "Al" has been teaching at Roosevelt School of the Arts since 1998 teaching 5 levels of Folklorico dance. Mr. Alatorre's dance classes perform every year for the winter and spring programs, the high school "Showoffs", the annual spring dance concert and the "Festival de los Danzantes". His top group "Los Danzantes de Roosevelt" is the elite group of the top dancers that continue to perform for major events throughout the state of California.